Part 1 - Type of Application

How to complete Part 1

The Licence Category you are applying for is dependent on the type of firearms that you own or propose to acquire. Cross the box applicable to the type of licence you require based on the descriptions below.

Licence Categories

Category 1 Firearms Collectors Licence

Category 1 Firearms Collectors Licence allows you to own, but not use-

- Longarms; and
- Handguns that have been manufactured after the 1st January 1900 but no later than 31st December 1946; and
- Handguns that have been manufactured before 1900, that use percussion as a means of ignition and that take cartridge ammunition that is commercially available; and
- Antique handguns (that are not single shot antique handguns).

All firearms must be consistent with the theme of your collection, i.e. commemorative, historical and/or thematic value. To apply for this licence you must be, and have been for at least 6 months, a member of an approved firearms collectors organisation that deals with the classes of firearms you propose to collect.

Category 2 Firearms Collectors Licence

Category 2 Firearms Collectors Licence allows you to own, but not use-

- Longarms; and
- Handguns that have been manufactured on or after the 1st January 1947; and
- Handguns that have been manufactured after the 1st January 1900 but no later than 31st December 1946; and
- Handguns that have been manufactured before 1900, that use percussion as a means of ignition and that take cartridge ammunition that is commercially available; and
- Antique handguns (that are not single shot antique handguns).

All firearms must be consistent with the theme of your collection, i.e. commemorative, historical and/or thematic value. To apply for this licence you must have held a Category 1 Collectors Licence for at least two years and be a member of an approved firearms collectors organisation. You must also possess more than 10 handguns manufactured before 1st January 1947. Any additional handguns you collect that are manufactured after 1st January 1947 must increase the historical value and significance of the collection.

Antique Handgun Collectors Licence

An Antique Handgun Collectors Licence allows you to own, but not use-

- Handguns that have been manufactured before 1900, that use percussion as a means of ignition and that do not take cartridge ammunition that is commercially available.

All firearms must be consistent with the theme of your collection, i.e. commemorative, historical and/or thematic value. To apply for this licence you must be a current member of an approved Firearms Collectors Club or organisation that deals with the classes of firearms you propose to collect.

* Please note Single shot antique handguns are exempt from the Firearms Act 1996.

Ammunition Collectors Licence

Ammunition Collectors Licence allows you to own, but not use, ammunition that is rendered inert. Sporting or military ammunition up to 20 mm calibre does not need to be rendered inert. To apply for this licence you must be a member of an approved ammunition collectors organisation.

* Note that holders of collectors licences (or approved firearms collectors clubs on behalf of holders of collectors licences) may apply for a permit to carry or use any Category A, B or C longarm or general category handgun held under that licence at a commemorative or historical event. This permit and the relevant event must be approved by the Chief Commissioner with the event sponsored by an approved organisation of firearms collectors and held at an approved range.

Part 2 – Personal Information

How to complete Part 2

Provide your current personal details in the boxes provided. Make sure to leave a space between words.

- If you have ever changed your name officially, you must staple to the back of this application a certified copy of your change of name certificate or full birth certificate that includes the schedule of any name changes or marriage certificate.
- If you are known by any other name, but have not changed your name officially, staple a list of your other names to the back of this application.

It is requested that you provide your email address and contact telephone details to enable Licensing & Regulation Division to contact you if a problem is encountered in the processing of your application. When providing your email address, make sure you indicate exact case, punctuation marks and the location of the '@' symbol.

Part 3 – Firearm Storage

The Firearms Act 1996 (Schedule 4) prescribes storage standards for firearms and ammunition. The following is a brief summary of the storage requirements that you must be able to satisfy.

Firearm Storage requirements (All categories of firearms)

A person who owns fewer than 15 firearms is to store in accordance with 3A of Schedule 4.

If more than 5 firearms are stored on the premises the firearms are to be stored:-

- (a) The premises must be fitted with an intruder alarm system.
- (b) The installation, maintenance and operation of the alarm system must comply with Australian Standard 2201.1:2007 (as amended from time to time), and
- (c) In the event of an intrusion, activates an audible alarm warning device and an external visible alarm warning light.

If no more than 15 category A or B longarms with no other firearms possessed under this licence and no other firearms are stored on the same premises, the firearm/s owned or possessed under a firearm collectors licence must be stored in a receptacle:

- (a) which is constructed of hard wood or steel that is not easily penetrable, and
- (b) which, if it weighs less than 150 kilograms when it is empty, must be fixed to the frame of the floor or the wall of the premises where the firearm is kept in such a manner that it is not easily removable, and
- (c) which, when any firearm is stored in it, is locked with a lock of sturdy construction.

A person who stores 15 or more firearms on the premises must store in accordance with section 122 of the Act. The firearms must be stored:-

- (a) on premises or a part of premises which is a permanent building with secure locks on all openings, and
- (b) in a room -
 - (i) the walls of which are solid enough to be a substantial physical barrier to entry and
 - (ii) any window of which is covered by security bars, and
 - (iii) any door to which is -
 - (A) of a solid material, or is covered by steel sheet or reinforced by firmly fixed steel mesh, and
 - (B) fitted with a lock of the dead latch type or an extra hasp or barrel bolt and padlock which is of such a nature as to reduce the possibility of the door being sprung from the jamb, and
 - (C) hinged with concealed hinge pins which are welded to prevent the pins being removed; and
- (c) in a receptacle -
 - (i) which is made of steel or any other robust material, and
 - (ii) which must be firmly fixed to the wall or floor of the room, and
 - (iii) the doors of which are attached with concealed or welded hinges, and
 - (iv) which, when any firearm is stored in it, is locked with a lock which is so constructed as to prevent the doors of the receptacle being easily sprung.

The key to the receptacle in which the firearm is stored must be carried by the holder of the licence or kept securely in a separate room from the receptacle when the receptacle is not being accessed.

The firearm must not be removed from the receptacle except by the holder of the licence.

Any bolt or firing pin which is required to be stored separately from the firearm it is part of, must be stored in the same manner as is required for the storage of a firearm under a longarm licence for a category A or B longarm.

Ammunition Collector Requirements

- Ammunition to be stored in a container made of hard wood or steel that can not be easily penetrated.
- If the container weighs less than 150 kg empty, it must be securely fixed to the floor or a wall frame in such a manner that it is not easily removable.
- When ammunition is stored in the container, the container must be locked with a lock of sturdy construction.

Note: You may have more than one storage address and any of your storage arrangements may be inspected at any reasonable time to ensure compliance with the Act.

Part 4 – Medical History

How to complete Part 4

Cross “Yes” or “No” in response to every question.

If you answered “Yes” to any question, please provide the Licensing & Regulation Division a current medical reporting notice as shown at the website: Firearm forms and reference information, then the section on Medical history information for Health Practitioners will guide you on how the Health Professional is to complete the reporting notice and send it the document directly back to LRD.

Failure to include all of this information in the report will result in your application being returned with the request for a medical report that does contain all of the required information.

Part 5 – Previous History

How to complete Part 5

Cross "Yes" or "No" in response to every question.

If you answer "Yes" to any question, supply additional information as requested.

Section A – Offences

- Definitions
- Convicted means that a charge has been proven, and a formal record of conviction has been made. It does not matter how long ago you were convicted or what penalty was imposed.
 - Found guilty without a conviction being recorded means that a charge has been proven but no formal record of a conviction was made (e.g. your court result could read "Without Conviction"). It does not matter how long ago you were found guilty or what penalty was imposed.
 - Charges outstanding means that you have been formally charged with an offence that has not yet been heard in a court of law. If this is applicable, you will have been served with a summons or charged and notified of a court date.

If you answer "Yes" to any question in this section, write the State and/or Country where this occurred in the boxes provided. If there is insufficient space, please attach a list to the back of the application.

Section B – Licence Refusal/Cancellation

You must cross the appropriate box to indicate if you have ever been refused a licence or permit for a firearm and you must cross the appropriate box to indicate if you have ever had a licence or permit for a firearm canceled. If you answered "Yes" to either question, you must write the year in the boxes provided.

Note: Previous licence refusal or cancellation does not necessarily preclude you from obtaining approval for this application.

Section C – Intervention Order

An Intervention Order is made under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008, or the Personal Safety Intervention Orders Act 2010 or an order of a corresponding nature made in another State or a Territory. You must select "Yes" in this section if you have been subject to any type of intervention order.

Section D – Application to be deemed not to be a Prohibited Person

If a person is defined as a "prohibited person" under the Firearms Act 1996 they cannot be approved to hold a firearms licence. However, the Act allows certain "prohibited persons" to apply to Court to be deemed to not be a prohibited person.

Details as to which offence and Intervention Orders can make you a "prohibited person" can be found in section 3 of the Firearms Act 1996. The circumstances under which you may apply to be deemed not to be a "prohibited person" can be found in section 189 of the same Act. The Firearms Act 1996 can be found at www.legislation.vic.gov.au/

Part 6 – Fingerprints

All Category 1 Firearms Collectors Licence applicants must provide fingerprints to Victoria Police before they can be licensed.

Category 2 Firearms Collectors Licence applicants, Antique Handgun Collectors Licence applicants and Ammunition Collector Licence applicants do not need to provide fingerprints.

Applicants must have their fingerprints taken and provide an original copy of their National Police Records Check Certificate with this application. Victoria Police provides fingerprinting services at various locations throughout Victoria. Visit the National police checks and fingerprinting website for more information.

Your fingerprints will be included on the National Automated Fingerprint Identification System (NAFIS) and regularly checked to satisfy the Chief Commissioner that you are a fit and proper person to hold a licence. Should your licence be canceled or not renewed you may make application in writing to the Victoria Police Fingerprint Section to have your fingerprint record destroyed.

Part 9 – Confirmation of Currently Owned Firearms

How to complete Part 9

You must indicate if you currently own any firearms, whether they are unregistered or registered to any current Victorian Firearms Licence.

If you own any firearms, you must provide a list of these in the appropriate method detailed below.

You may only submit your application without one of the attachments detailed below if you do not own any firearms.

If you have any firearms already registered with Victoria Police Licensing & Regulation Division –

- You should confirm details of your currently owned firearms via a Firearms Registration Certificate (i.e. a Firearms List).
 - If you do not have a copy of this document you may contact Licensing & Regulation Division either via phone (1300 651 645) or via email (lrd@police.vic.gov.au) to have a current Firearms Registration Certificate sent to you.
 - Check that all the firearm details are accurate on the Certificate.
 - Change any inaccuracies in the Firearms Registration Certificate in the manner described in the instructions attached to the Certificate; and
 - Add any firearms that you own that are not currently on the Firearms Registration Certificate by following the instructions attached to the Certificate.
- Sign and date the Firearms Registration Certificate as per instructions.
- Staple the Firearms Registration Certificate to the back of this application.

Do not submit your application without your completed Firearms Registration Certificate attached or your application will be returned.

Part 10 – Acknowledgement

You must read, sign and date the Acknowledgement.
